

IOWA WATERCOLOR TRAVELING SHOW for 2020-2021

Frank Eber juried and judged this year's annual IWS Exhibition that consisted of sixty paintings chosen from 150 entries from IWS members across Iowa. The traveling exhibit of thirty paintings is selected from the main exhibition and includes the five IWS Awards of Excellence, Best Transparent Watercolor and Honorable Mentions.. One can truly say that the IWS Traveling Show is the best of the best.

Frank Eber was raised in Europe and mentored by Italian master painter Renato Casaro in the early 90's. In the '80s and '90s Frank worked as a professional illustrator and portrait artist by commission. His love for travel has given him prime opportunities to paint. He lived for three years in the south of France, and has painted on location in many countries around the world. Consequently, he has also painted in California and other parts of the United States.

Frank is a Signature member of the American Watercolor Society, the National Watercolor Society, and the Transparent Watercolor Society of America. He is also an Artist member of the California Art Club.

Frank is increasingly in demand as a judge and juror. He conducts workshops and demonstrations locally and at the national and international levels. As such he teaches atmospheric watercolor, both in-studio and en plein air. See which materials and equipment he uses. Please see Workshops for current offerings. In addition you can contact Frank for more information and scheduling future events. Furthermore, a selection of original work is available at Ambleside Gallery, North Carolina, and CaliforniaWatercolor.com. He lives in California.
